Winter can be tough on your lungs, especially if you have COPD.

Stopping smoking is
the best thing you
can do to help
protect your lungs.
