Dear Applicant

Your Request

Following the response to FOI ICB 26-117, I would like to ask additional questions.

1. As the trusts that carry out the dementia assessment requires specialised nurses/doctors, and as most dementia reviews are carried out by primary care e.g. the GP practice what training has been provided by the ICB to GP practices to allow the dementia review to be carried out safely?
2. If a training programme is not provided by the ICB to the GP practices, then by who?

Our Response

We can confirm, as per Section 1(1) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000, the ICB does hold the information requested.

1. The ICB does not provide training to GP practices for the dementia review.
2. GP practices have a responsibility to train their workforce and keep up to date with current management of dementia and any co-occurring conditions.
