

A midwife with short brown hair and glasses, wearing a dark blue NHS uniform with white piping. She is smiling and standing in a brightly lit hospital corridor. Her uniform has a name tag that reads 'Gateshead Health NHS NHS Foundation Trust Public Health Midwife'.

“It’s really, really important that you get the vaccines.”

Here to protect you and your baby

For trusted advice about vaccinations in pregnancy, ask your midwife.

HERE

TO

HELP